

April 4*2*GO Red Wine

2005 Tapeña Tempranillo, Spain – Regularly $9.99

Tapeña (tah-PAY-nyah) is a cross between tapas, small plates of food served at bars in Spain, and peña (PAY-nyah) which is slang for a group of close friends. Tapeña is one of 11 wineries in Spain owned by the Ferrer family, famous for their Freixenet. Gabriel Suberviola, their award-winning winemaker, has created these wines in an easy drinking, very approachable manner. Their 100% Tempranillo (tem-prah-NEE-yoh) has flavors of cherry, chocolate, coffee, spice and vanilla. Enjoy this wine with Seafood Paella, Pasta with a Marinara Sauce, Garlic Shrimp or a Marinated Grilled Pork Tenderloin. Spain has become a leader in combining tradition with modern winemaking skills!

2005 Kenwood Vineyards Pinot Noir, Russian River Valley – Regularly $16.99

Kenwood Vineyards is located in Kenwood, California, in the heart of the Sonoma Valley and is a producer of premium quality varietal wines. They were first known for their Chardonnay, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon and then later on, started producing Pinot Noir. Most agree that the Russian River Valley is the ideal location in California for Pinot Noir due to the early morning fog, warm days, afternoon sea breeze and cool nights. With smoky, mushroom aromas and flavors of spicy anise and dried cherries, this easy drinking Pinot Noir will go well with your Grilled Salmon, Stuffed Portabella Mushrooms or the Turkey with Cranberry Sauce on your menu this evening.

2003 Castle Rock Merlot, California – Regularly $11.99

The idea behind Castle Rock wines is simple - to produce and sell the highest quality premium wines at affordable prices while implementing the most advanced marketing support systems in the industry. Sounds simple, doesn't it? That's what Greg Popovich, Founder and President, thought in 1994 when he started Castle Rock Wines. His focus was on producing good value wines, not on real estate or a huge staff, therefore keeping his costs down. The wines are sourced from grapes grown in the best locations of Oregon, Washington and California and they are made and bottled at wineries with state-of-the-art facilities. Once you try Castle Rock Merlot, you'll be eager to taste their other varietals.

2005 Dessert Eagle Shiraz, Australia – Regularly $14.99

This wine will make you say “WOW!” It is deep purple in color, dense and inky, silky smooth mocha, with chocolate and cherry flavors. An incredible value Shiraz, coming from vineyards in the "Golden Mile", an exclusive area of Barossa Valley. From this same section of land, grapes are selected for the famous Penfolds Grange! Jayson Woodbridge, Owner-Winemaker of the cult Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon Hundred Acre, set out to make the “best wine possible, no matter what it cost.”
