2007 Marqués de Cáceres White Rioja, Spain - Regularly $9.99

In the late sixties, Enrique Forner founded the Bodega with the help of Emile Peynaud. Both men are from Bordeaux, France where the Forner family already owned the Grand Cru Classé Chateau Camensac. They chose land in Rioja because it is the most traditional and prestigious wine region of Spain. Made with 100% Viura grapes, the wine goes through a slow fermentation process in temperature controlled stainless steel tanks. It is later stabilized by refrigeration treatment before being bottled. This keeps the acidity bright and refreshing, making the wine a wonderful match for seafood, sushi or just sipping.

"This light white offers bright peach and floral notes, with crisp, citrusy acidity. Clean and refreshing. Drink now." 86 points, Wine Spectator

2006 Kendall-Jackson Grand Reserve Chardonnay, California - Regularly $19.99

Jess Jackson started with an 80 acre pear and walnut orchard in 1974. He converted it to a vineyard, sold his grapes to local wineries and then in 1982 bottled his first wine. After nearly three decades, his family grows grapes on nearly 14,000 acres in California. Jess, his wife Barbara Banke, and his family still run the day-to-day business of the winery. Robert Parker's review of this top-of-the-line Chardonnay says it all!

90 Points - "One of the finest values in Chardonnay in the market is the 2006 Grand Reserve Chardonnay, which is aged 8 months in a combination of French and American oak, and put through malolactic fermentation. It is a cross-appellation blend of 55% from Monterey and 45% from Santa Barbara. Gorgeous tropical fruits, pineapple in particular, as well as honeysuckle and some floral notes jump from the glass of this pure, rich wine that exhibits subtle oak but is dominated by its fruit. It's a beauty that should drink nicely for several years." – Robert M. Parker Jr., Wine Advocate

2007 Camille Cayran “Secret de Campane” Vin de Pays de la Principaute d'Orange, France - Regularly $9.99

Cairanne is a well known wine village of the Southern Côtes du Rhône. The "Secret de Campane" comes from the vineyards located in the Principality of Orange, in Provence, (on the left bank of the Rhône river), facing the Dentelles de Montmirail and the Mont Ventoux. This medium bodied alternative to Pinot Noir is a blend of 60% Grenache, 20% Carignan, 10% Cinsault and 10% Merlot and boasts a beautiful cherry red color. The aromas are of fresh raspberries and red fruits with light pepper and cherry on the palate. The tannins are soft and approachable making it a nice match for soft cheese, pasta, and BBQ.

One of the Top Red Wine Picks in the Fall Plonkapalooza, The Boston Globe - October 2008

2005 Katnook Founder's Block Cabernet Sauvignon, Australia - Regularly $19.99

Katnook is an aboriginal word meaning "Fat Land" referring to Coonawarra's red, fertile soil known today as "terra rossa". The unique soil of Coonawarra produces exceptional Cabernet Sauvignon, as well as stylish Shiraz, Merlot, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc. The 2005 vintage was almost ideal and produced Cabernet Sauvignon wines with excellent color, abundant ripe fruit with generous flavors and substantial palate structures with fine lingering tannins. Winemaker Wayne Stehbins has been at Katnook's winemaking helm since 1979, making him one of Australia's longest serving winemakers. He is also one of the nation's most awarded winemakers. Wayne describes his winemaking style as "making wines which show subtlety, intrigue and complexity. Reflecting the essence of Coonawarra's terroir is integral to my winemaking approach."
