

2006 St. Hallett Poacher's Blend, Australia - Regularly $11.99

In the heart of the Barossa Valley, Australia's best known wine region lies St. Hallett, one of the country's premier wine producers. After years of focusing their efforts on fortified wines, they're now known for full flavored table wines. The Poacher's Blend is 80% Semillon and 20% Sauvignon Blanc showing bold passion fruit and pineapple aromas with full flavors that finish with a hint of lime. This wine is unoaked which helps maintain a crisp acidity that goes great with fish, or even Thai food.

2004 R Collection Chardonnay, Monterey – Regularly $10.99

Roy Raymond, Sr. started his winemaking career as a cellar worker for Beringer Brothers in 1933 where he met and fell in love with Martha Jane Beringer. They got married and had two sons who later on assisted their father at the winery and "caught the passion" for winemaking. When Beringer Winery was sold in 1971, they decided to start their own family winery in Napa Valley where they have been producing award winning wines every since and are now in their fifth generation of winemaking. The R Collection Series showcases the premium appellations and this Chardonnay comes from their estate vineyards in Monterey. With only three months of aging in French oak it allows the tropical flavors of to burst on your palate. You'll taste flavors of pineapple, mango, and kiwi with a little vanilla lingering on the long, smooth finish. This is a great wine if you are grilling chicken for dinner, or getting your Friday take-out of Thai Spring Rolls.

2005 Amazin Zinfandel, Russian River Valley – Regularly $14.99

This Russian River zinfandel has vibrant aromas of ripe blackberries and cassis with rich ripe flavors of raspberries and blueberries, hints of chocolate and subtle spice. It will fill your palate with and velvety cherry, vanilla flavors blending nicely into the soft tannins. Enjoy this easy drinking wine with your roast pork tenderloin topped with a fruit topping, or a delicious flourless chocolate torte with raspberry coulis! If you need the recipes, just send me an email.

2004 Rutherford Ranch Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley – Regularly $14.99

You'll find Rutherford Ranch located in the heart of Napa Valley along the Silverado Trail. This seductive and soft Cabernet is a blend of 89% Cabernet Sauvignon, 5% Petite Sirah, 4% Syrah and 1% Merlot. Flavors of blackberries, mocha, subtle chocolate, and subtle spice with soft tannins make this wine great with hearty pasta dishes, lamb or aged cheddar cheese.e blackberry and cassis

Gold Medal - The Jerry Mead New World International Wine Competition